Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

On April 8, 2026, Beneficient, a Nevada corporation (the “Company”), through one of its subsidiaries, funded the closing of a primary capital transaction pursuant to definitive agreements entered into on April 7, 2026 with a customer with respect to a limited partner interest in an investment fund with a net asset value of $8.75 million (the “Transaction”). Pursuant to the Transaction, the Company’s customized trust vehicles acquired a limited partner interest, and in exchange for such, the customer received 875,214 shares of the Company’s Series B-10 Resettable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share (the “Series B-10 Preferred Stock”), with such Series B-10 Preferred Stock being convertible into shares of the Company’s Class A Common Stock, par value $0.001 per share (the “Class A Common Stock”). Following the closing of the Transaction, the Company participates in an unrealized gain of approximately $1.2 million, which represents the Company’s pro rata interest in the appreciation of the customer’s existing asset portfolio.

The issuance of the Series B-10 Preferred Stock pursuant to the Transaction was not registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and was issued in reliance upon the exemption provided in Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act and Regulation D promulgated thereunder.

The Series B-10 Preferred Stock is convertible into Class A Common Stock initially at a conversion price of $3.5479 per share (the “B-10 Conversion Price”). The B-10 Conversion Price is subject to reset from time to time and a floor price of $1.2418 per share. A maximum of 7,047,947 shares of Class A Common Stock may be issued upon conversion of the Series B-10 Preferred Stock. The information in Item 5.03 concerning the material terms of the Series B-10 Preferred Stock is incorporated by reference herein.

Item 3.03 Material Modifications to Rights of Security Holders.

The disclosure required by this Item 3.03 is included in Item 5.03 of this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

Series B-10 Preferred Stock

On April 8, 2026, the Company filed a certificate of designation (the “B-10 Certificate of Designation”) with the Secretary of State of Nevada, effective as of the time of filing, designating the rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions of the shares of the Series B-10 Preferred Stock. The material terms of the Series B-10 Preferred Stock are described below. The total number of authorized shares of the Series B-10 Preferred Stock is 875,214 shares.

Optional Conversion

Each share of Series B-10 Preferred Stock is convertible, at the option of the holder thereof upon two business days’ written notice to the Company, into a number of shares of Class A Common Stock that is equal to $10.00 divided by the B-10 Conversion Price in effect as of the date of such notice (the “B-10 Conversion Rate”). The B-10 Conversion Price shall be subject to reset on each date (each such date, a “B-10 Reset Date”) that is the last day of each month following the date of issuance of the Series B-10 Preferred Stock (the “B-10 Original Issue Date”). On each B-10 Reset Date, the B-10 Conversion Price shall be increased or decreased to the five day trailing volume weighted average price of the Class A Common Stock on the Nasdaq Capital Market or such other national securities exchange on which the Class A Common Stock is listed for trading as of the applicable B-10 Reset Date as reported by Bloomberg Financial Markets or an equivalent reporting service as determined by the Company (the “Prevailing Market Price”), provided that in no event shall the reset B-10 Conversion Price be (a) less than 35% of the initial B-10 Conversion Price or (b) higher than the initial B-10 Conversion Price, in each case subject to adjustments for stock dividends, splits or combinations, reorganizations, recapitalizations or similar transactions. As further described in the B-10 Certificate of Designation, the Company will not issue any shares of Class A Common Stock upon conversion of any Series B-10 Preferred Stock if the issuance of such shares of Class A Common Stock would exceed the Exchange Cap (as defined below), except that such limitation shall not apply in the event that the Company obtains the approval of its stockholders as required by the applicable rules and regulations of The Nasdaq Stock Market, LLC (“Nasdaq”) for issuances of shares of Class A Common Stock in excess of the Exchange Cap.

Mandatory Conversion

Each outstanding share of Series B-10 Preferred Stock will automatically convert into a number of shares of Class A Common Stock (the “B-10 Mandatory Conversion”) as is determined by the B-10 Conversion Rate then in effect on the date (the “B-10 Mandatory Conversion Date”) that is the earliest to occur of: (a) the last day of the month in which the fifth anniversary of the B-10 Original Issue Date occurs, if either the Company has filed all annual reports on Form 10-K and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q that are then required to have been filed in the preceding twelve months with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or a resale registration statement with respect to the shares of Class A Common Stock underlying the Series B-10 Preferred Stock (the “B-10 Resale Registration Statement”) has become effective and is in full force and effect at the time of such B-10 Mandatory Conversion and (b) if the conditions of clause (a) are not met on the date that is the last day of the month in which the fifth anniversary of the B-10 Original Issue Date occurs, the first date thereafter on which any shares of Series B-10 Preferred Stock may be resold pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act, or the B-10 Resale Registration Statement has become effective. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Series B-10 Preferred Stock shall not convert into Class A Common Stock to the extent such conversion would cause a holder to exceed (i) 4.99% (the “B-10 Beneficial Ownership Limitation”) of the number of shares of the Class A Common Stock outstanding immediately after giving effect to the issuance of shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon conversion of Series B-10 Preferred Stock held by the applicable holder or (ii) the aggregate number of shares of Class A Common Stock that the Company may issue upon conversion of the Series B-10 Preferred Stock without breaching the Company’s obligations under the rules and regulations of Nasdaq (the number of shares which may be issued without violating such rules and regulations, the “Exchange Cap”). To the extent a conversion would cause a holder to exceed the B-10 Beneficial Ownership Limitation or Exchange Cap, as applicable, the conversion of the portion of such conversion that would exceed the B-10 Beneficial Ownership Limitation or Exchange Cap, as applicable, shall be delayed until the first day the conversion of such portion would not cause the holder to exceed the B-10 Beneficial Ownership Limitation or, with respect to the Exchange Cap, when stockholder approval as required by the applicable rules and regulations of Nasdaq has been obtained. Further, to the extent any such share of Series B-10 Preferred Stock has not otherwise automatically converted into shares of Class A Common Stock, the B-10 Conversion Price for such shares shall be subject to additional resets on the terms described in the B-10 Certificate of Designation on the last date of each month.

Ranking

Series B-10 Preferred Stock will, with respect to dividend rights and rights upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, rank: (a) junior with respect to the Company’s Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share; (b) pari passu to the Class A Common Stock, Series B-1 Resetable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share, Series B-2 Resetable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share, Series B-3 Resetable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share, Series B-4 Resetable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share, Series B-5 Resetable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share, Series B-6 Resetable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share, Series B-7 Resetable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share, Series B-8 Resetable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share and Series B-9 Resetable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share; (c) senior, pari passu or junior with respect to any other series of preferred stock, as set forth in the Certificate of Designation with respect to such preferred stock; and (d) junior to all existing and future indebtedness of the Company.

Liquidation Preference

In the event of any liquidation or dissolution of the Company, the holders of Series B-10 Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, pro rata with the holders of the Company’s Class A Common Stock, and any other shares of preferred stock of the Company identified as “Designated Preferred Stock,” a per share amount equal to such amount per share as would have been payable had all shares of Series B-10 Preferred Stock been converted to Class A Common Stock pursuant to Section 8 of the B-10 Certificate of Designation (without giving effect to any ownership limitations therein) immediately prior to such liquidation or dissolution of the Company (the “Liquidation Preference”). The Series B-10 Preferred Stock shall be a series of Designated Preferred Stock.

Dividends

Dividends will be paid on the Series B-10 Preferred Stock on an as-converted basis when, as, and if paid on the Class A Common Stock.

Voting Rights

Except as required by law, the holders of Series B-10 Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting of the stockholders for election of members of the Board of Directors of the Company or for any other purpose or otherwise to participate in any action taken by the Company or the stockholders thereof, or to receive notice of any meeting of stockholders.

The foregoing summary of the B-10 Certificate of Designation does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, such document, which is filed as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

CERTIFICATE OF DESIGNATION OF
SERIES B-10 RESETTABLE CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK OF BENEFICIENT

(Pursuant to NRS 78.1955)

Beneficient, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Nevada (the "Corporation"), does hereby certify that, pursuant to the authority conferred on its board of directors (the "Board of Directors") by its articles of incorporation (the "Articles of Incorporation") and in accordance with Section 78.1955 of the Nevada Revised Statutes, the Board of Directors adopted the following resolution establishing a series of 875,214 shares of Preferred Stock of the Corporation designated as Series B-10 Resettable Convertible Preferred Stock.

BE IT RESOLVED, that pursuant to the authority conferred on the Board of Directors of this Corporation by the Articles of Incorporation, a series of Preferred Stock, $0.001 par value, of the Corporation be and hereby is established and created, and that the designation and number of shares thereof and the voting and other powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other rights of the shares of such series and the qualifications, limitations and restrictions thereof are as follows:

1. Designation and Number. A series of Preferred Stock, designated as Series B-10 Resettable Convertible Preferred Stock ("Series B-10 Preferred Stock"), is hereby established. The number of authorized shares of Series B-10 Preferred Stock shall initially be 875,214 shares.
2. No Sinking Fund. There shall be no sinking fund for the payment of dividends or liquidation preferences on Series B-10 Preferred Stock or the redemption of any shares thereof.
3. Rank. Series B-10 Preferred Stock will, with respect to dividend rights and rights upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, rank: (a) junior with respect to the Corporation's Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share; (b) pari passu to the Corporation's common stock, Series B-1 Resettable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share, Series B-2 Resettable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share, Series B-3 Resettable Convertible Preferred Stock, Series B-4 Resettable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share; Series B-5 Resettable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share, Series B-6 Resettable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share, Series B-7 Resettable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share, Series B-8 Resettable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share, and Series B-9 Resettable Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share; (c) senior, pari passu or junior with respect to any other series of preferred stock, as set forth in the Certificate of Designation with respect to such preferred stock; and (d) junior to all existing and future indebtedness of the Corporation.
4. Liquidation Preference. In the event of any liquidation or dissolution of the Corporation, the holders of Series B-10 Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, pro rata with the holders of the Common Stock, and any other shares of preferred stock of the Corporation identified as "Designated Preferred Stock," a per share amount equal to such amount per share as would have been payable had all shares of Series B-10 Preferred Stock been converted to Common Stock pursuant to Section 8 (without giving effect to the limitations in Sections 8.4 or 10) immediately prior to such liquidation or dissolution of the Corporation (the "Liquidation Preference"). The Series B-10 Preferred Stock shall be a series of Designated Preferred Stock.
 - 4.1. Adjustment. For purposes of this Section 4, in the event that the shares of Series B-10 Preferred Stock have not been converted into shares of the Corporation's Class A Common Stock, par value $0.001 per share ("Class A Common Stock"), and in the event that the Corporation either: (a) subdivides (by stock split, reclassification or otherwise) the outstanding shares of Series B-10 Preferred Stock into a greater number of shares of Series B-10 Preferred Stock; or (b) combines or consolidates (by reverse stock split) the outstanding shares of Series B-10 Preferred Stock into a smaller number of shares of Series B-10 Preferred Stock, then the Liquidation Preference shall be proportionately decreased or increased, as appropriate, simultaneously with the occurrence of such event.

- 4.2. Consolidation or Merger of the Corporation. The consolidation or merger of the Corporation with or into any other corporation, trust or entity or of any other corporation, trust or entity with or into the Corporation, or the sale, lease, exchange offer, tender offer or any other transfer, or conveyance of all or substantially all of the property or business of the Corporation, shall not be deemed to constitute a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation.
- 4.3. No Further Rights. After payment of the full amount of the Liquidation Preference, the holders of Series B-10 Preferred Stock will have no right or claim to any of the remaining assets of the Corporation by virtue of their ownership of Series B-10 Preferred Stock.
5. No Voting Rights. Except as required by law, the holders of Series B-10 Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting of the stockholders for election of members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation or for any other purpose or otherwise to participate in any action taken by the Corporation or the stockholders thereof, or to receive notice of any meeting of stockholders.
6. Dividend Rights. Dividends will be paid on the Series B-10 Preferred Stock on an as-converted basis when, as, and if paid on the Class A Common Stock.
7. Redemption. The outstanding shares of Series B-10 Preferred Stock shall not be redeemable by the Corporation.
8. Optional Conversion. Each share of Series B-10 Preferred Stock is convertible, at the option of the holder thereof upon two business days' written notice to the Corporation, into a number of shares of Class A Common Stock that is equal to the Stated Value divided by the Conversion Price (as defined below) in effect as of the date of such notice (the "Conversion Rate"). The Conversion Price shall be subject to reset on each date (each such date, a "Reset Date") that is the last day of each month following the date of issuance of the Series B-10 Preferred Stock (the "Original Issue Date"). On each Reset Date, the Conversion Price shall be increased or decreased to the Prevailing Market Price (as defined below), provided that in no event shall the reset Conversion Price be (a) less than 35% of the initial Conversion Price or (b) higher than the initial Conversion Price, in each case subject to adjustments for stock dividends, splits or combinations, reorganizations, recapitalizations or similar transactions.
 - 8.1. As used herein, the term "Stated Value" shall mean $10.00 per share of Series B-10 Preferred Stock.
 - 8.2. As used herein, the term "Conversion Price" shall initially mean $3.5479 per share.
 - 8.3. As used herein, the term "Prevailing Market Price" shall mean the five day trailing volume weighted average price of the Class A Common Stock on the Nasdaq Capital Market or such other national securities exchange on which the Class A Common Stock is listed for trading ("Nasdaq") as of the applicable Reset Date as reported by Bloomberg Financial Markets or an equivalent reporting service as determined by the Corporation.
 - 8.4. Principal Market Regulation. The Corporation shall not issue any shares of Class A Common Stock upon conversion of any Series B-10 Preferred Stock or otherwise pursuant to the terms of this Certificate of Designation if the issuance of such shares of Class A Common Stock would exceed the aggregate number of shares of Class A Common Stock that the Corporation may issue upon conversion of the Series B-10 Preferred Stock without breaching the Corporation's obligations under the rules and regulations of Nasdaq (the number of shares which may be issued without violating such rules and regulations, the "Exchange Cap"), except that such limitation shall not apply in the event that the Corporation obtains the approval of its stockholders as required by the applicable rules and regulations of Nasdaq for issuances of shares of Class A Common Stock in excess of the Exchange Cap. Until such approval is obtained, shares of Series B-10 Preferred Stock shall not convert into Class A Common Stock to the extent such conversion would cause the Corporation to issue shares of Class A Common Stock in excess of the Exchange Cap; provided that the conversion of the portion of such conversion that would not exceed the Exchange Cap shall not be delayed pursuant to this Section 8; provided, further that, the conversion of the portion of such conversion that would exceed the Exchange Cap shall be delayed until the first day the conversion of such portion would not cause the Corporation to exceed the Exchange Cap. Further, to the extent any such share of Series B-10 Preferred Stock has not otherwise automatically converted into shares of Class A Common Stock pursuant to Section 9, the Conversion Price for such shares shall be subject to additional resets on the terms described in Section 8 hereof on the last date of each month.

9. Mandatory Conversion. Each outstanding share of Series B-10 Preferred Stock will automatically convert into a number of shares of Class A Common Stock (the "Mandatory Conversion") as is determined by the Conversion Rate then in effect on the date (the "Mandatory Conversion Date") that is the earliest to occur of: (a) the last day of the month in which the fifth anniversary of the Original Issue Date occurs, if either the Corporation has filed all annual reports on Form 10-K and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q that are then required to have been filed in the preceding twelve months with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), or a resale registration statement with respect to the shares of Class A Common Stock underlying the Series B-10 Preferred Stock (the "Resale Registration Statement") has become effective and is in full force and effect at the time of such Mandatory Conversion and (b) if the conditions of clause (a) are not met on the date that is the last day of the month in which the fifth anniversary of the Original Issue Date occurs, the first date thereafter on which any shares of Series B-10 Preferred Stock may be resold pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Resale Registration Statement has become effective. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Series B-10 Preferred Stock shall not convert into Class A Common Stock to the extent such conversion would cause a holder to exceed the Beneficial Ownership Limitation (as defined below) under Section 10 or the Exchange Cap under Section 8.4 hereof and to the extent a conversion would cause a holder to exceed the Beneficial Ownership Limitation or Exchange Cap, as applicable, the conversion of the portion of such conversion that would exceed the Beneficial Ownership Limitation or Exchange Cap, as applicable, shall be delayed until the first day the conversion of such portion would not cause the holder to exceed the Beneficial Ownership Limitation or, with respect to the Exchange Cap, when stockholder approval has been obtained. Further, to the extent any such share of Series B-10 Preferred Stock has not otherwise automatically converted into shares of Class A Common Stock pursuant to this Section 9, the Conversion Price for such shares shall be subject to additional resets on the terms described in Section 8 hereof on the last date of each month.
10. Beneficial Ownership Limitation. The Corporation shall not effect any conversion of the Series B-10 Preferred Stock, including, without limitation, a Mandatory Conversion, and a holder of the Series B-10 Preferred Stock shall not have the right to receive dividends hereunder or convert any portion of the Series B-10 Preferred Stock, to the extent that, after giving effect to such a conversion, such holder would (together with such holder's affiliates and any persons acting as a group together with such holder or any of such holder's affiliates (such persons, "Attribution Parties")) own in excess of the Beneficial Ownership Limitation. For purposes of the foregoing sentence, the number of shares of Class A Common Stock beneficially owned by such holder and its affiliates and Attribution Parties shall include the number of shares of Class A Common Stock received as shares pursuant to a dividend or issuable upon conversion of the Series B-10 Preferred Stock with respect to which such determination is being made, but shall exclude the number of shares of Class A Common Stock which are issuable upon (a) conversion of the remaining, unconverted Series B-10 Preferred Stock beneficially owned by such holder or any of its affiliates or Attribution Parties and (b) exercise or conversion of the unexercised or unconverted portion of any other securities of the Corporation subject to a limitation on conversion or exercise analogous to the limitation contained herein (including, without limitation, the Series B-10 Preferred Stock) beneficially owned by such holder or any of its affiliates or Attribution Parties. Except as set forth in the preceding sentence, for purposes of this Section 10, beneficial ownership shall be calculated in accordance with Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, it being acknowledged by the holder that the Corporation is not representing to the holder that such calculation is in compliance with Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act and the holder is solely responsible for any schedules required to be filed in accordance therewith (other than as it relates to a holder relying on the number of shares issued and outstanding as provided by the Corporation pursuant to this Section 10). In addition, a determination as to any group status as contemplated above shall be determined in accordance with Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. For purposes of this Section 10, in determining the number of outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock, a holder may rely on the number of outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock as stated in the most recent of the following: (i) the Corporation's most recent periodic or annual report filed with the SEC, as the case may be, (ii) a more recent public announcement by the Corporation or (iii) a more recent written notice by the Corporation or the Corporation's transfer agent setting forth the number of shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding.

10.1. As used herein, the term "Beneficial Ownership Limitation" shall initially mean 4.99% of the number of shares of the Class A Common Stock outstanding immediately after giving effect to the issuance of shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon conversion of Series B-10 Preferred Stock held by the applicable holder. A holder, upon at least sixty-one (61) days advance notice to the Corporation, may terminate, waive, increase or decrease the Beneficial Ownership Limitation provisions of this Section 10. Notwithstanding the foregoing, without Stockholder Approval, the Beneficial Ownership Limitation shall not exceed the Cap.

11. No Fractional Shares. The Corporation shall not issue any fractional shares of Class A Common Stock upon conversion of shares of Series B-10 Preferred Stock. If the conversion would result in the issuance of a fraction of a share of Class A Common Stock, the Corporation shall round such fraction of a share of Class A Common Stock up to the nearest whole share.

12. Adjustment for Reclassification, Exchange, and Substitution. If at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date, the shares of Class A Common Stock issuable upon the conversion of the Series B-10 Preferred Stock shall be changed into the same or a different number of shares of any class or classes of stock, whether by recapitalization, reclassification, reorganization, merger, exchange, consolidation, sale of assets or otherwise (other than by a Class A Common Stock Event (as defined below) or a stock dividend or distribution provided for elsewhere in this Certificate of Designation), then, in any such event, the Series B-10 Preferred Stock shall thereafter convert into the kind and amount of stock and other securities and property receivable upon such recapitalization, reclassification, reorganization, merger, exchange, consolidation, sale of assets or other change by a holder of the number of shares of Class A Common Stock into which such shares of Series B-10 Preferred Stock would have been converted immediately prior to such recapitalization, reclassification, reorganization, merger, exchange, consolidation, sale of assets or other change, all subject to further adjustment as provided herein or with respect to such other securities or property by the terms thereof.

13. Adjustment Upon Class A Common Stock Event. In the event that a Class A Common Stock Event occurs at any time or from time to time after the Original Issue Date, the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such event shall, simultaneously with the occurrence of such Class A Common Stock Event, be proportionately decreased or increased, as appropriate. The Conversion Price shall be readjusted in the same manner upon the happening of each subsequent Class A Common Stock Event.

13.1. Class A Common Stock Event. As used herein, the term "Class A Common Stock Event" means: (1) the declaration or payment of any dividend or other distribution on the Class A Common Stock, without consideration, payable to one or more stockholders in additional shares of Class A Common Stock or other securities or rights convertible into, or entitling the holder thereof to receive, directly or indirectly, additional shares of Class A Common Stock; (2) a subdivision (by stock split, reclassification or otherwise) of the outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock into a greater number of shares of Class

A Common Stock; or (3) a combination or consolidation (by reverse stock split) of the outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock into a smaller number of shares of Class A Common Stock.

14. Transfer Restrictions. The shares of Series B-10 Preferred Stock may not be sold, assigned or otherwise transferred without the written consent of the Corporation. Any such sale, assignment or transfer shall be void ab initio and of no effect. For avoidance of doubt, this Section 14 shall not apply to shares of Class A Common Stock issued upon conversion of the Series B-10 Preferred Stock.
15. Notice. Except as may otherwise be provided for herein, all notices referred to herein shall be in writing, and all notices hereunder shall be deemed to have been given upon the earlier of receipt of such notice or four business days after the mailing of such notice, if sent by registered mail, with postage pre-paid, addressed: (a) if to the Corporation, to the attention of its corporate secretary or to an agent of the Corporation designated as permitted by the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation, as amended; (b) if to any holder of Series B-10 Preferred Stock, to such holder at the address of such holder as listed in the stock record books of the Corporation (which may include the records of the Corporation's transfer agent); or (c) to such other address as the Corporation or holder, as the case may be, shall have designated by notice similarly given.

Beneficient Closes $8.75 Million GP Primary Capital Transaction

DALLAS, April 10, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) — Beneficient (NASDAQ: BENF) (“Ben” or the “Company”), a technology-enabled platform providing exit opportunities and primary capital solutions and related trust and custody services to holders of alternative assets, today announced it has closed on the financing of an $8.75 million primary capital commitment in Quartus AI Fund LP (“Fund”), a fund managed by Quartus Capital Partners LLC (“Quartus”), a New York based investment firm investing in growth stage AI and technology ventures. Quartus is led by AI pioneers, technologists, and seasoned operators (the “Transaction”).

The Transaction continues the Company’s efforts to deliver primary capital to qualifying private investment funds through its GP Primary Commitment Program. In exchange for an interest in the Fund, the Fund received approximately $8.75 million in stated value of shares of the Company’s Resettable Convertible Preferred Stock (the “Preferred Stock”), which is convertible at the election of the holder into shares of the Company’s Class A common stock, subject to the terms and conditions of the Transaction documents.

Following the closing, the Company participates in an unrealized gain of approximately $1.2 million, which represents its pro rata interest in the appreciation of the Fund’s existing asset portfolio. As a result of the Transaction, the collateral for the Company’s ExAlt loan portfolio is expected to increase by approximately $9.77 million of interests in alternative assets. Additionally, the Company believes this Transaction will result in the addition of approximately $9.77 million of tangible book value attributable to the Company’s stockholders.

“We are pleased to partner with Quartus AI Fund LP and welcome Quartus Capital Partners LLC to our GP Primary Commitment Program,” said James Silk, Beneficient Interim CEO. “We believe Quartus is an exceptional firm at the forefront of vertical AI investing, and this transaction reflects our continued commitment to closing transactions that drive shareholder value and enhance the value of the collateral backing our ExAlt loan portfolio.”

Quartus AI Fund LP invests in growth-stage Vertical AI ventures that are solving critical, real-world problems across high-value sectors. Vertical AI ventures are strategically positioned to benefit from the trillions of dollars being invested in foundational AI infrastructure. Other investors in the Fund include endowments, foundations, RIAs, multifamily offices, and single-family offices, and the Fund currently holds nine portfolio AI investments, eight of which are US-based. Additionally, the Fund has performed in the top quartile of Cambridge Associates Benchmark Indices over the past two-plus years, and Quartus Capital Partners LLC was awarded Best Performing US Emerging Manager for 2024 by Private Equity Wire.

Beneficient's GP Primary Commitment Program is focused on providing primary capital solutions and financing anchor commitments to general partners during their fundraising efforts while immediately deploying capital into our equity. Through the program, Beneficient seeks to help satisfy the up to $330 billion of potential demand for primary commitments to meet fundraising needs.
